EDITORIALS.

Watch for our special rate during January.

The Hippidrome which barred Negroes, has gone into the hands of receivers. More power to the receivers. Now watch the Globe.

Democratic Commissioner Reynolds says: "I would not take any Negro's word against that of a white policeman," which is a direct suggestion to tough officers to sail into the Negroes.

Down in Georgia the other day an auto containing four white women went dead in front of an oncoming train. A Negro ran forward and pushed it off the track. Up to date they have not lynched him.

We all feel sorry for the poor starving Belgians, and we have contributed our mite toward their relief. Also, we wonder if they ever think in the midst of their distress of how they brutalized, maimed and tortured the poor blacks in their African colonies.

A London paper editorially asserts that the Negro society in Washington is deteriorating. From the once high order of moral selection which once prevailed there, has come an era of the mixing up of good, bad and indifferent. The same is true of London society and of white society in Washington.

The "Public Mind" column of the Star is not open to colored men for discussion of the Reynolds negro-phobia utterances. The Nelson papers confine their notices of our race to lynchings and "barly black brute" episodes. Negroes should take note of this and hereafter steer clear of the Nelson political vagaries.

The local social high tide is now on and every one knows whether he has been honored or cut at each of the grand functions scheduled for the week. There is much talk, naturally, and the spirit of Christmas does not prevail among the leftouts. Perhaps a study of the big gatherings would be interesting from a social standpoint and the standards might be seriously questioned, but that is society, and it's society that rules.

It will be a pleasure to his many friends to know that Rev. George F. Martin, one of our home boys who graduated from the high school of the class of '01, and who is now a licensed preacher in the A. M. E. church, is stationed at Miami, Mo., and is doing well in this little field. Brother Martin was not ashamed nor unwilling to begin at the bottom, but with his splendid ability, his excellent physique and his genial good nature he will undoubtedly forge his way to the front in his chosen profession, and may at no distant day pastor one of the churches of his home city. The Sun wishes him Godspeed and unbounded success in his new field of endeavor.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Mrs. M. A. Kirkpatrick paid the last $25 of her $100 pledge to the Furnishing Fund this week. It is hoped that all persons will now pay their pledges in full that the date of Dedication may be set.

Already eight civic and social service organizations are meeting in the new building. A number of college and university boys are making their home in the building during the holidays.

Don't you know your relatives and friends who formerly lived in Kansas City would enjoy the Sun for a present better than anything else you could send them?

For ten days, lasting until January 2; there will be a membership contest on between the "Reds" and the "Blues." At this time 120 members are to be gotten, 47 boys and 83 men. This will bring the boy membership up to 125, which will be as many as the Boy's Department will take in for several weeks. The boys have joined so fast it will be necessary to limit the membership in this department for a period of time.

The business and professional men's gym class at noon, promises to be one of the best. A beginners' class is being organized to meet at 8:00 p. m. for all men beginners. The boys' classes are all full.

The following letter was received from Mr. Julius Rosenwald in answer to a letter thanking him for his assistance in the erection of our building:

Dear Mr. DeFrantz:
 Mr. Rosenwald directs me to acknowledge receipt today of your day letter thanking him for the Committee of Managers of the Paseo Y. M. C. A. for his assistance in helping to make it possible for you to spend Thanksgiving Day in your new building. Words of appreciation like yours are precious to Mr. Rosenwald. They are dividends in happiness which sometimes come to him from his invested endeavors to help others. Thanking you in his name, for your thoughtfulness in telegraphing him, I am,
 Sincerely yours,
 WILLIAM C. GRAVES,
 Secretary to Julius Rosenwald.

CAFETERIA.

WHAT SCHOOL IS THIS?

I should like to know up with conditions as those which now exist in one of our public schools. The teachers in the school to which I refer give the principal all kinds of present, such as wearing apparel and things to eat in order to keep their jobs. Nobody works except those who feel like doing so. They sit around reading newspapers or talking to each other and can be seen going to and from school at any time of the day. The pupils also go when they get ready and go home when they please. There is no discipline in this building as any of the larger pupils will tell you. Only recently all the pupils who were not particularly bright were put back a grade or two until they were so low that they had to appear bright. The seventh grade pupils are instructed to watch for supervisors and pass the word around when they come. The teachers then get up and get busy until the supervisor has gone. The principal takes life easy drawing a good salary and flirting with the most interesting of his teachers. How do such women get jobs here, anyway? By giving more than our home girls have to give. This is not the first. I trust that you will print this letter, and if there is not a change for the better I shall go in person to the authorities with proofs of what I know.

MRS.

Little Miss Louise Unthank and little Miss Thomas, daughter of Rev. W. H. Thomas, have planned an entertainment for the babies and sick children at the city hospital. Louise has saved $5 during the year and asked her parents for permission to spend it that way. God bless them.

JAMES F. BUNDY DEAD.

Secretary of Howard University Law School for 25 Years.

James F. Bundy, born in Rappahannock county, Virginia, Sept. 25, 1863, was stricken with paralysis at his home last Sunday, and died at Freedmen's hospital the following Monday.

In 1884 he married Miss Deilla Freeman, and is survived by her and two daughters, Della, a teacher in the Washington public schools, and Zenobia, a pupil, as well as beloved mother.

In the year 1890 he became secretary and treasurer of the law department of his alma mater, and continued as such until his death.

From 1901 to 1907 he was a member of the board of education of the District of Columbia, serving on its most important committees; was identified with every effort for the betterment of the Washington schools and is said to have drafted the compulsory education bill now in force in this District.

MEN'S LOBBY MEETING.

AN INTERESTING LETTER.

Boise, Idaho.

Dear Editor:
 Inclosed find check for a year's subscription of your valuable paper, which I would not be without. Your paper comes to me regularly each week and is good food to a hungry tramp in a far off land. I am so selfish that I do not want to be disturbed when once I have opened the Sun until every line has been read. It always seems like a friend from home when it comes, and I think that is the reason I love it so. It brings me news each week of friends of whom I have no knowledge of their whereabouts. Then, too, I learned of your wedding and the number of valuable presents unheard of before at a Negro wedding.

Although I can not see how you will find use for them, yet they will be pleasant to look upon and know that they are yours, and you and Mrs. Crews have my best wishes. May you be prosperous and happy. I was also glad to read Mr. Lange's letter and the remarkable story of his progress. The young wives of today would not stay long with a man who built a hut without a window as a place in which they should live; they would be found crawling out of the hole left open by a log. It is indeed wonderful how God has blessed them

Among the Churches

ST. STEPHEN'S BAPTIST CHURCH.
 The following program will be sung Christmas morning at 4 a. m. at the St. Stephen's Baptist church:
 "The Vision"—Solo and processionals.
 Jesse Harris, tenor.
 Hymn anthem—"Years Ago in Bethlehem."
 "The Christmas Song" (Bates)—Mrs. Bertha Brown.
 Hymn—"Joy to the World."
 "There I Long to Be With Jesus" (Simons).
 "Hark What Celestial Notes I Hear"—Miss Edith Richard.
 Carols—"Onward the Glory Guides," "The Seraphs Song."
 Rev. J. W. Hulse, pastor, will preach "The Birth of Christ."

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH.
 Dr. Bacote will preach Sunday morning on "The Power of Jesus' Name." All invited.

VINE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.
 Bro. Eli Harris is somewhat better. Bro. D. Ross and brother D. J. Story visited Mt. Pisa last Sunday and made instructive addresses and were indeed grand. Bro. Thos. Polard was called home on account of the death of his mother and we extend to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy and we can but say that she cannot come to them but they can go to her. On account of the cold weather last Sunday the attendance was small. We wish all a Happy New Year.

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH.
 Quarterly meeting was held last Sunday at Bethel A. M. E. church. Twenty-fourth and Flora. Dr. Peck, the presiding elder, preached morning and evening. There were three additions to the church. At the communion service at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, Rev. Douglas of the A. M. E. Zion church, preached a soul stirring sermon, and it seemed as though the very heavens opened and the spirit of God descended like a dove upon the exceedingly large congregation that had assembled in spite of the inclement weather. More than 100 people attended the special go to Sunday school services.

C. B. SWEATMAN DIES.

C. B. Sweatman, Past Grand Master of the U. B. F. and for many years the leading barber at Brunswick, Mo., but during his declining years an inmate of the U. B. F. Home at Hannibal, died Saturday, November 12, and was quietly buried there.

Brother Sweatman had faults as have we all, but he had many good qualities and it was the pleasure of the editor of the Sun twenty-nine years ago in the Grand Lodge of the U. B. F., which met at Brunswick in 1886, to nominate him for Grand Master, to which office he was elected. Peace to his ashes; rest to his soul.

CHILLICOTHE, MO.

Mr. Oliver Patterson is on the sick list. The illness of Mr. Charles Kingsberry is unchanged. Among his visitors last week were two of his daughters and Miss Cosetta Kingsberry of Kansas City. Mrs. Mary Monroe has been confined to her home for two weeks because of the dislocation of a knee cap. Mr. Towers and Mr. Johnson of Brookfield, Mo., have moved their families to this city, where they are permanently employed. Dr. Hill, an agent for the Red Bird Realty Co., has been in this city for several days. Mr. Paul Nealer purchased five beautiful lots opposite the home of his father last week with ready money. The Baptist revival meeting going quietly on at various cottages is growing with increasing interest and numbers. Mr. Alex Winfrey is able to be up and about his home after a month's confinement. The A. C. E. Society has been reorganized at Bethel church with Mrs. Katie Nance as president. Judging from the enthusiasm and the young people in attendance the society will be of no little value to the church and community. Already we see shadows of the coming holiday events.

MARSHALL, MO.

Mrs. Georgia Smith, mother of Mr. Talton Robinson, died December 20. She was a charter member of Green Valley Court No. 70, Heroines of Jericho. Lincoln School had their closing exercises for the holidays. There were many visitors present. It was said the program was the best ever rendered. School enthusiasm is at its height. All are looking forward to the grand opening January 4, 1915, in the new building.

PHOENIX, ARIZ.

The Valley bank of Phoenix has been reorganized and will reopen shortly. The opening of this institution has been looked forward to with much anxiety by our people. There is a young man who died here several days ago and whose body is still lying in the morgue awaiting identification. His name is Tom Smith and he comes from Kansas City. He used to wait table there. If anyone knows this man or his people they will do well to look into this matter. He carries a large amount of insurance and the insurance company refuses to pay one cent until the beneficiaries are found. Mr. and Mrs. George Caldwell gave a swell party the other night in honor of out of town guests who were staying at their home. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Conner of Prescott, Ariz.; Mr. and Mrs. John Hoke of Tacoma, Wash.; Mrs. W. H. Young of Albuquerque, N. M.; Mrs. Alexander of Prescott and about sixty others. This effort on the part of Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell was pronounced a grand success by all who were fortunate enough to be present. The Phoenix Forum is progressing nicely with Mrs. S. L. Gross in the chair. An election of officers will be held on the first Sunday in January. Mr. C. H. Cunningham, the "barbecue king," is still doing business at the same old stand, 428 East Jefferson street. He reports a steady increase in his patronage and desires to thank his many friends for their liberal patronage. Miss Alma Crews is imbued with the Phoenix spirit since coming here and says that she will always be a booster for Phoenix, no matter where she goes. Mrs. Nannie J. Roberts, formerly of Kansas City, Mo., has opened a first class rooming house at 14 North Tenth street. She brings to Phoenix an experience of eight years in the rooming house business in Kansas City and we may well be proud to have her among us. We predict success for you here, Mrs. Roberts. May your stay be permanent. The Sun headquarters are at 1026
